

January 2008

Marshalltown Meeting (MIW)

Our meeting this Sunday, January 20 will be at the Marshalltown FBO. Plan to arrive at 11:00 am. We will have lunch and an important planning session. April is fast approaching and there is much to be done before we host the Spring North Central Section Meeting in Osceola.

North Central Section Spring Meeting Highlights ■ Osceola, Iowa ■ April 25-27

In addition to business, a few highlights of our Spring Section Meeting follow:

Friday evening dinner will be served by the Iowa Cattleman. Julie Boatman Filucci, Manager at Cessna Aircraft Company, nationally recognized aviation journalist and former editor of AOPA Pilot magazine will speak, followed by a hangar dance.

Saturday, Bill Fox, one of 20 charter members of the Blackbird Laurels Society honoring those integral to the success of the highly classified Blackbird program will be our luncheon speaker.

Saturday afternoon is an optional trip to the Indianola National Balloon Museum and a visit to Southern Hills Winery.

Saturday evening, Paul Berge, Iowa Aviation Promotion Group, who was seen weekly from 2000-2007 on IPT's Living in Iowa series will be our banquet speaker.

NCS Mid-Winter Meeting

The North Central Section Mid-Winter Meeting will be held at a hotel next to Midway Airport in Chicago on Saturday, February 23. Please let us know if you would like to attend and I'll get the info and forms to you.

Annual Air Race Classic

If you didn't get the email I forwarded about the call for volunteers for the Air Race Classic stop in Mason City in June, go to www.airraceclassic.org or contact me and I'll send it again. It sounds like fun. If you do go, please be sure to let us know.

Waypoint

Waypoint magazine is going totally electronic next year. If you wish to discontinue receiving a hard copy version before then, please contact Shelly Ventura at sventura@aldrige-electric.com and it will help financially or contact me at cmberg@mailmis.com and I'll let Shelly know.

Alaska Convention

Several of us are planning to attend the Alaska International Convention in August. If you need more information, please contact me.
